Rector writes...

Blessed Mother's Day

As Jesus looked upon His mother and the beloved disciple at the cross, He said, "Woman, here is your son," and to the disciple, "Here is your mother." From that moment, the disciple welcomed Mary into his home (John 19:26-27).

Mother's Day is a time to reflect and give thanks for the extraordinary gift of motherhood. The Bible reminds us that our appreciation is not restricted to biological mothers, but extends to all women who nurture, guide, and love with selfless devotion, mirroring the love and compassion of God.

John 19:26-27 reveals Jesus' deep honour and care for His mother, even in His final moments, as He entrusts her to His disciple. This act of devotion encourages us to cherish and care for our mothers, recognising their unwavering support, prayers, and unconditional love throughout our lives.

May we bless our mothers today through kind words and meaningful actions. As Proverbs 31:28 says, "Her children arise and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praises her." Let us bless our mothers with the (five) languages of love as we have learned earlier this year i.e. words of encouragement/affirmation, quality time, hugs and kisses, acts of kindness and gifts.

To all mothers and godmothers – wishing you a Blessed Mother's Day!

Prayer That Shapes Life

2 Thessalonians 1:3-12

1. Prayer Shapes Attitude (vv. 3-4)

2. Prayer Shapes Eternal Perspective (vv. 5-10)

3. Prayer Shapes Destiny (vv. 11-12)

Applying the Word:

1. What does Paul thank God for in 2 Thessalonians 1:3-4?
2. Share about your mother or spiritual mother (or parent). What advice from them do you still remember?
3. In your own words, what does it mean to pray that God will make other believers worthy of His calling and kingdom (v. 5, 11)?
